

Participants in the important Hythe Conference. Left to right: Austen Chamberlain, Premier Millerand, David Lloyd George, Francois Marsal, Minister of Finance; Lady Rocksavage, the hostess; Sir Maurice Hankey, Paul Cambon, Sir Philip Sassoon and Lord Derby.

(Photo, Keystone View.)

Above—Leonore Hughes, an American dancer, whose art and American gowns are making a great hit in London. Copyright, Bertram Park.

Above — The three children of Dr. Manuel Condra, the newly elected President of Paraguay. This photograph was taken in Washington, where the children go to school. Photo, International.

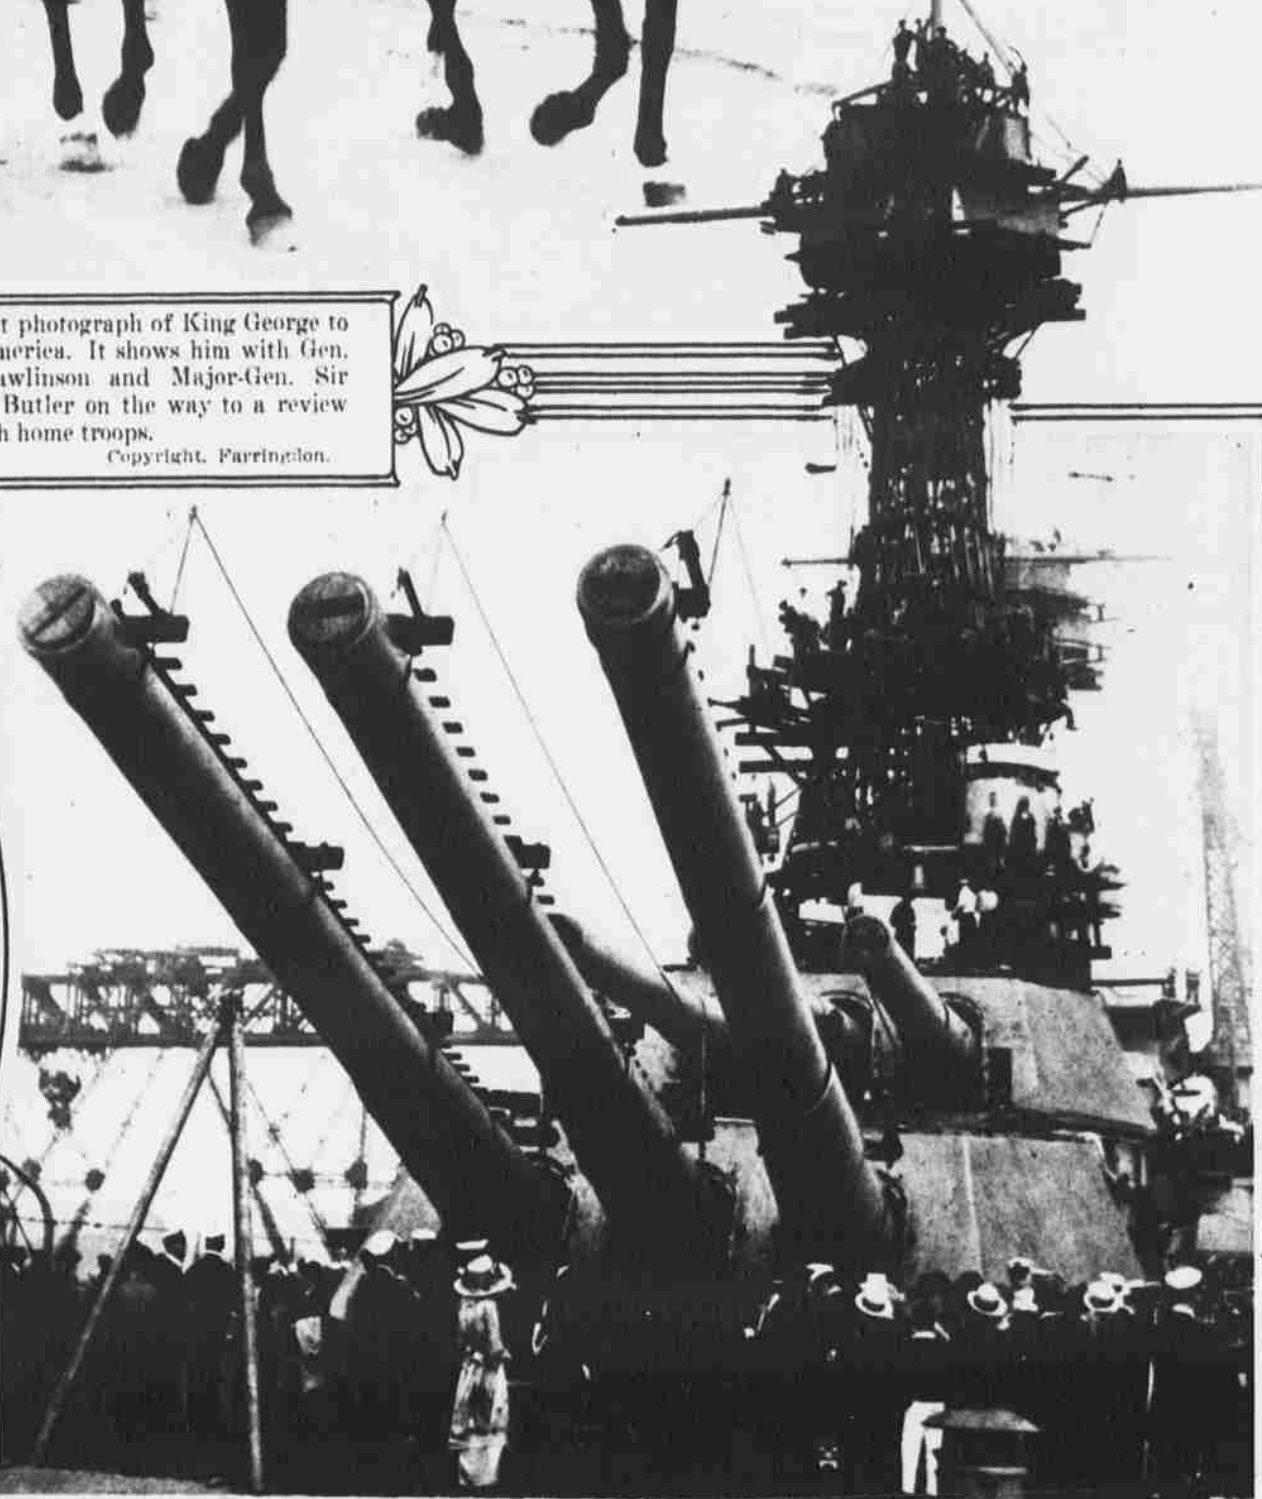

Latest photograph of King George to reach America. It shows him with Gen. Lord Rawlinson and Major-Gen. Sir Richard Butler on the way to a review of British home troops.

Copyright, Farrington.

Capt. Richard Henry Leigh (left) and Commander A. F. Stanton, commander and executive officer respectively of the U. S. S. Tennessee, just placed in commission. Photo by a SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD photographer.

Citizens of Tennessee inspecting the forward turret and giant guns of the great battleship named for their State and just placed in commission at the Navy Yard in Brooklyn, where she was built.

Photo, Paul Thompson.